

POPIA NOTICE / POLICY STATEMENT

This notice is drawn up and distributed in accordance with the provisions of the Protection of Personal Information Act, No. 4 of 2013

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 OSWALD PROFESSIONAL ENGINEERS processes the minimum amount of personal information and/or confidential information of individuals as it is not compulsory for the business to have or handle too much personal information in order to do the work that payment is done for.
- 1.2 The nature of the personal information which we process, also does not depend on the different services we render, as we will need the same minimum information in each case – this is either for the client that pays the company (the debtor) or employees employed by the company.
- 1.3 We are obliged to process personal information in accordance with the provisions of the Protection of Personal Information Act, No. 4 of 2013 (the so-called POPI Act).

This notice constitutes our policy statement to declare our business's commitment to comply with the POPI Act when processing any kind of personal information and/or special personal information, as defined in paragraphs 8.5 and 8.9 below.

- 1.4 This notice forms part of our agreement with you and is available on our website and, upon request, from our office.

2. THE PURPOSE OF PROCESSING PERSONAL INFORMATION

- 2.1 We process personal information primarily to be able to quote, invoice and process payments from clients, to draw up contracts of service with clients and to employ employees. We also process personal information –

2.1.1 for personalised marketing purposes;

2.1.2 to conduct client satisfaction research;

- 2.1.3 for audit and record keeping purposes;
 - 2.1.4 to deal with requests and enquiries about personal information held by us and to update this information, when advised by you;
 - 2.1.5 should you apply for employment at our firm, to process your application;
 - 2.1.6 for the detection and prevention of fraud, crime, money laundering or other malpractices.
- 2.2 When you contact us by email, other means of electronic communication, telephone, post, or telefax, we collect, store, use and keep record of certain personal information that you disclose to us. This includes details such as your name, address, telefax number, mobile phone number and email communication data. By providing us with your personal information, you authorise us and associated entities or third parties (where applicable) to process such information as set out herein.
- 2.3 We do not intentionally collect or use personal information of children (persons under the age of 18 years), unless with express consent of a parent or guardian, or if the law otherwise allows or requires us to process such personal information.
- 2.4 We do not process special personal Information about you unless –
- 2.4.1 it is necessary to process quotes, payments or contracts of work or contracts of service;
 - 2.4.2 we have to process information relating to your health as part of our screening processes when you access our premises, or premises we do our work at, in order to comply with Covid-19 regulations and protocols;
 - 2.4.3 we have obtained your consent to do so (eg should you apply for employment at our firm, we require your permission to do a criminal record check to process information which relates to your criminal record, if any).
- 2.5. We are committed to process personal information and special personal information –
- 2.5.1 fairly and lawfully, for specific purposes;

Elisma Oswald: Financial Manager * Mobile: +27 76 645 6033 * E-mail: elisma@oswaldengineers.com

2.5.2 in accordance with any agreement we may have with you and in accordance with the legal standards applicable to such information or information categories;

2.5.3 which is accurate and kept up to date;

2.5.4 which is adequate, relevant and not excessive or misleading.

3. SHARING OR TRANSFER OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

3.1 We undertake to use your personal Information only for the purpose for which the information is essential and not to share or further process your personal information without your consent.

3.2 Please note that in certain circumstances we might release account and other personal information to third parties when we believe that such release is appropriate to comply with the law; to enforce our client agreements and other agreements; or to protect the rights, property or safety of our business. We will inform you when we decide to do so or will have to do so and will share only what is needed for those purposes.

3.3 South African legislation allows for the disclosure of personal information to law enforcement or other agencies without your consent. In circumstances where we are required to disclose information because we are legally obliged to do so, we will first consider the legitimate interests of all concerned.

4. RETENTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

4.1 We will retain your personal information for as long you permit us to do so and/or in accordance with the provisions of any applicable legislation.

4.2 Please note that we are obliged in law to retain documents containing personal information for at least seven years from the date of the last entry recorded in each particular book or other document of record or file.

5. SAFEGUARDING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

5.1 We are required to take reasonable measures to adequately protect all the personal information we hold and to avoid unauthorized access and use of such personal information. To comply with this requirement, we maintain reasonable industry-standard physical, electronic and procedural safeguards in respect of the personal information we collect, store, disclose and destruct.
